YOUR FACE

No matter how bright, your face loses half its charm by the exhibition of unsightly teeth. If extracted the gum may shrink and make bad wrinkles. If neglected they will spread decay to others and make your teeth bad. Have your teeth attended to now.

WANTS COUNTY
TO RENEW LEASE

QUARRY PRIVILEGE LEASE HAS EXPIRED AND TRUST COMPANY
ASK SUPERVISORS TO ACT.

The Hawaiian Trust Company has addressed a communication to the Board of Supervisors which will come up at their meeting tonight, asking that body to take some action in the matter of renewing the lease of quarry privileges in quarries a Kamohihi.
These quarries are the ones from which the county has heretofore obtained considerable stone for road making, and the lease is about to expire. The matter will probably be given attention tonight.

FIRE ALARM
BURNING SHED

A fire alarm was turned in about 9:30 o'clock this morning from box 125, Keeaumoku street and King street.
An oil stove had become unmanageable and set fire to a shed in the rear of the property of Fred Whitney on King street.

The department responded quickly and the police patrol was on hand with its usual promptness. The shed was the only property damaged and that was destroyed.

thereupon given a middle name, "Los Angeles."

SHIP INCENDIARY CASE.

The case against C. Ahrens and Jacques Guerre, charged with setting fire to the cargo of the ship Calverdon, was called in Judge Robinson's court this morning. Their pleas of not guilty and guilty respectively were withdrawn and will be made on Thursday. Leon Strauss is defending Guerre, the Frenchman, while J. Lightfoot was appointed to defend Ahrens.

HELD UP CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate decided yesterday to hold up until March 25 the Governor's appointments of Olaf Sorenson, J. H.
Howland and G. H. Gere as commissioners of street and road grade. It was suggested by Senator Lane during the course of the debate on this subject that it would be well to defer action on the appointment of Howland until after the Nuuanu dam committee had reported, as Howland would be until then under fire, as it were. Senator Dowsett made an inquiry as to the nature of the particular commission, so after some debate it was decided to defer the action on all of the appointments, the previous confirmation of Sorenson's name being withdrawn. The Senate will, in the meanwhile, ascertain the nature of the new commission so that when the matter comes up it will know more about the office.

THE HOUSE.

TWENTY-THIRD DAY.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The House reassembled at 2 o'clock.
The Miscellaneous Committee in a report on House resolution providing for the extension and improvement of certain roads and streets, recommended that as the $10,000 proposed for the extension of Kukul street to Asylum road was insufficient for the work, that it be stricken out.

The matter provoked considerable discussion on the part of Representatives Mahoe and Kalelopu, and on motion the resolution was referred back to the committee.

The Health and Police Committee reported favorably on Rawlins' bill No.
24, relative to regulating the practice of medicine, but suggested an amendment imposing a penalty of $100 or second reading.

Rawlins introduced a bill relating to a change of name, amending Section 2550 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii, the bill provides for the proper notification through a newspaper of a person's desire to have his name changed and how it shall be decreed by a court.
Passed to printing committee.

The Judiciary committee submitted a majority report on House bill No. 3, providing for the assignment by a court of an attorney to defend persons accused of felonies who are unable to employ counsel, and allowing for such service a fee of from $15 to $50. The majority report recommended a passage of the bill, but Rawlins heading a minority of the committee spoke strongly against it, urging that except in the case of capital offenses such a system would prove burdensome to the territory and tend to corrupt persons accused of crime.
